18 July 2016

Dear Mr. Speaker

I write to send you, the Assemblée nationale, and the people of France, my heartfelt condolences, and those of my colleagues in the House of Commons, following the terrible events in Nice on Thursday 14 July.

When atrocities such as this occur, it is vital that friends and allies are able to rely on, and to comfort each other, during desperately sad times.

The families of those who were murdered and the people of France, are in our thoughts and prayers at this time.

Yours ever,

Rt Hon John Bercow MP
Speaker
