Your Excellency,

RE: TERROR ATTACK ON FRENCH PEOPLE IN NICE, FRANCE ON THE 14/7/2016

I write to offer my most sincere and heartfelt condolences on the death of over 80 people and injury of several others who were attacked while attending celebrations for the Bastille Day in NICE, France.

It is difficult to express the depth of the pain, trauma and suffering of all those whose loved ones were victims of this heinous attack. And the Uganda Parliament stands in solidarity with President Hollande , the people of France and all those who cherish freedom.

It is particularly disturbing that this is the third attack on the people of France in the last several months.

Please accept your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration and esteem.

Rebecca A. Kadaga (MP)
SPEAKER OF THE PARLIAMENT OF UGANDA
